

FLORIDA DESIGN'S

MIAMI

HOME & DECOR

SEAFAIR

The Megayacht venue presents Rock the Boat, a luxury showcase of the world's most exclusive haute, fine and vintage jewelry on display from Nov. 29 to Dec. 7, 2008.

TEXT BY KIM MOSLEY

PHOTOGRAPHY COURTESY OF EXPOSHIPS, LLLP BONITA SPRINGS, FL

Glamour, elegance and excitement anchor SeaFair's Rock the Boat gala opening on Nov. 29, 2008 designed to coincide with the launch of Art Basel Miami Beach, America's leading international art fair.

A Rock the Boat week of splendor aboard SeaFair's gallery exposition ship, docked at the Fountainebleau Miami Beach, continues through Dec. 7 as each day's events begin with a sponsored lecture during an elegant brunch, then a celebrity chef lunch

continued on 114

ABOVE: Treasure troves of art, antiques and fine jewelry are on display aboard Sea Fair's floating exhibition that docks at the Fountainbleau Miami Beach from Nov. 29 through Dec. 7, 2008.

RIGHT: Art Deco sapphire, onyx and diamond pendant brooch with floral motif of flower buds resting on onyx stems and leaves, by Cartier New York, circa 1920. Courtesy of Hancocks.

SEAFAIR

continued from 112

TOP: Fine jewelry from prestigious international galleries and jewelers set sail aboard SeaFair toward affluent ports of call. Courtesy of David Morris.

LEFT: Courtesy of Graff London.

continued on 116

SEAFAIR

continued from 114

followed by an evening of cocktail parties throughout the gallery exhibition areas of many of the most renowned jewelers such as Graff, Chaumet, David Morris, Judith Ripka Creations, Audemars Piguet and more. For more information, call Expoships at 239/949-5411 or visit www.expoships.com.

ABOVE: Fine Belle époque diamond brooch, Edwardian period, old European cut diamonds, platinum setting. English, circa 1905. Courtesy of Hancocks.

RIGHT: Egyptian Art Deco 8-Day Minute Lapis clock, mother-of-pearl face by Cartier Paris, circa 1930. Courtesy of Hancocks.

